Description

Located in the highly sought-after village of Mathern, just on the edge of the vibrant market town of Chepstow, this deceptively spacious home is nestled within a quiet cul-de-sac of individually designed self-build properties.

Beautifully extended to the rear, this generous family home offers a fantastic balance of flexible living space and well-proportioned bedrooms.

On the ground floor, you are welcomed by a spacious reception hall that leads into a large kitchen/breakfast room with adjoining utility room and an open-plan flow into the dining room. The dining area continues into a stunning sunroom extension featuring a vaulted ceiling and French doors opening onto the rear garden, perfect for entertaining or relaxing all year round.

The living room also benefits from French doors to the garden, creating a seamless indoor-outdoor feel. A separate study provides the ideal home office, and a ground floor W.C. adds convenience. The integral double garage is accessible directly from the hallway, offering practicality and excellent storage.

Upstairs, a spacious landing leads to four double bedrooms. The principal bedroom enjoys its own en-suite shower room, while the impressive family bathroom serves the remaining rooms. Bedrooms two and three enjoy lovely open views over the surrounding countryside.

Externally, the property boasts a generous driveway and beautifully maintained mature gardens to the front and rear offering a tranquil setting that's perfect for family life.

A rare opportunity to acquire a substantial and beautifully designed home in a fantastic location. Viewing is highly recommended.

The village has an excellent local pub serving good food. Mathern itself is a historic community (parish) and village in Monmouthshire, south east Wales, about 3 miles (4.8 km) south west of the town of Chepstow. Chepstow itself has all of the local amenities you'd expect from a small market town.
