Description

This charming character semi-detached stone cottage, believed to have been built circa 1911 to house local workers, is set just a short distance from the heart of the village and enjoys a wealth of period features throughout.

The accommodation is entered via a small entrance hall with turned staircase to the first floor and door leading into the cosy living room, featuring painted floorboards, a wrought iron wood burner and bespoke shutters. From here, access is provided to the rustic kitchen/dining room, again benefitting from a wrought iron wood burner and original quarry tiled flooring, creating a warm and characterful heart to the home.

Leading off the kitchen/dining room is the rear hallway, which gives access to the utility room, ground floor bathroom and direct access out to the garden.

To the first floor, the landing leads to three bedrooms. Externally, the property enjoys cottage-style gardens to the front and a particularly generous, well-maintained south-facing garden to the rear, complete with productive vegetable and fruit patches, a well-kept lawn and useful outbuildings.

The property is situated within a small and sought-after village offering two thriving public houses and a local store. It is conveniently located approximately 6–7 miles from Chepstow and 2–3 miles from Lydney, both of which provide railway stations and excellent road networks, making larger towns and cities easily accessible for commuting.
