Property Details

This delightful end cottage presents a wonderful opportunity to acquire a characterful home that seamlessly blends traditional charm with modern convenience. The heart of the property features an inviting open-plan living space, anchored by an attractive fireplace that creates a focal point for relaxation and entertaining. The well-appointed kitchen boasts fitted units and provides practical access to the rear, leading to the property's charming cottage garden arranged across split levels, offering both privacy and potential for outdoor enjoyment.

The accommodation extends upstairs to provide flexible living with three well-proportioned bedrooms comprising two generous doubles and a useful single, perfect for a growing family or those requiring a home office space. The modern shower room completes the first-floor accommodation with contemporary fittings that add a fresh, updated feel to this traditional property.
