THE PROPERTY

A elegant panelled entrance hall sets the tone for this seriously interior-led home. The ground floor flows effortlessly from a sophisticated living room with striking media wall, through to the showstopping living kitchen — crowned with an orangery roof, flooded with natural light and finished with bespoke Kingswood cabinetry, a large island, integrated drinks station and concealed bar. Bi-fold doors open directly to the garden, while underfloor heating and a second media wall add comfort throughout. A versatile study works equally well as a home office or gym. The exceptional Kingswood utility room includes clever storage, a W.C. and boot room — keeping family life beautifully organised. Upstairs, the generous landing leads to a luxurious master suite with contemporary grey ensuite, a second double bedroom with its own ensuite, a third double currently used as a treatment room, and a further single bedroom. The family bathroom is a real statement, centred around a striking pebble-shaped bath. A staircase off the landing rises to an expansive attic room — ideal as a guest bedroom or private retreat.
