THE PROJECT

The project is the culmination of an original Class Q consent to change the use of the existing agricultural building to the current consent ref 75168 and 77401 which allows the demolition of the existing barn and the construction of an unrestricted single storey dwelling on a green field site which is hard to find in this area of North Devon so close to Woolacombe which lies within 2.5 Miles. The dwelling has a floor area of approx 166 m2 on one floor with up to 4 bedrooms.

SITUATION

The new build site is situated in a favoured part of North Devon only two miles from Woolacombe Beach set in an elevated position on Willingcott Hill with lovely views of the surrounding countryside and distant views South to the Taw and Torridge Estuary from the higher part of the site. Woolacombe is 2.5 Miles Braunton is 3 Miles and Barnstaple is 10 Miles. Croyde bay and Putsborough Sands are also closeby. Exmoor National park is an easy drive to the East and is visible from the site.

LAND 5.73 ACRES

The land associated with the planning permission extends to 5.73 Acres made up of two enclosures with a clearing housing the existing agricultural building. The land is all down to pasture and is surrounded by Devon Banks with a hardened track allowing access from the adjacent council road into the agricultural building where there is a hardened parking and turning area. The land registry Title number is DN2505154.

EXISTING BUILDING

The existing building which has some domestic facilities measures approx 10 meters by 6 Metres and has mains water, mains elec connected along with a pvt drainage system.

PLANNING

Planning consent from North Devon Council can be found at <https://planning.northdevon.gov.uk/Planning/Display/77401>

AGENTS NOTE

The vendor would consider an offer for the site only without the adjacent 4 acres of Pasture.

METHOD OF SALE

The property will be offered for sale by private treaty.
