SUMMARY

Blanch House is Brighton's original boutique hotel.

A Grade II listed town house situated in a Georgian terrace just off the seafront in bohemian Kemptown and a short walk from the City's numerous attractions including The Brighton Centre, Brighton Palace Pier, The Royal Pavilion, The Sea Life Centre, Brighton Marina and the famous North & South Laines. There are many restaurants, bars and clubs within close proximity to the hotel.

This lovely Boutique Hotel offers great flexibility for any incoming purchasers whereby it can be run purely as Standalone guest accommodation with its intimate lounge and Bar for Residents or additionally as a private Wedding Ceremony/Reception venue or indeed as a Conference facility or Private Dining/Restaurant open to both Guests and the Public.

The property was completely refurbished in 2011 and since then has had an ongoing refurbishment programme in place with some four rooms being refurbished in 2021 in addition to all internal common ways, external elevations and the owners/managers apartment on the lower ground floor.

Blanch House comprises some twelve individually designed en-suite guest rooms, each created with style, luxury and comfort as paramount including three feature rooms, five superior doubles and four cosy doubles. In addition there are guest cloakrooms, an office, store room, commercial kitchen, laundry room, courtyard area and staff WC.

This beautifully presented Hotel offers a wonderful opportunity with much flexibility to a discerning purchaser and is arranged more particularly as follows:
