A rare opportunity to acquire this recently refurbished split level apartment in one of Blackheath's premier tree lined roads. The property boasts recently finished kitchens and bathrooms, two full size double bedrooms and a large, bright lounge with bay window. There is ample storage throughout the property, combined with off street parking to the front, a lovely communal garden to the rear and the proximity to the heath is the perfect place for spacious living, indeed the split level configuration means house like living internally. Having been fully renovated throughout, the property is in turn key condition for its new owners.

A low service charge per annum, and share of freehold means this immaculate block ticks all the boxes, its easily the best flat and the biggest in a 2 mile radius.

There are amazing bus connections to the property, and Charlton Overground station a 12 minute walk this apartment offers large contemporary living in one of South East London's most desirable locations. With vacant possession, and share of freehold this is a must see. Please call Rolfe East on 020 8579 1111 for viewings.
