Brought to market without any onward chain, is this three-bedroom end terrace house offering a perfect blend of comfort and convenience, well located for local shops and public transport.

Upon entering, you are welcomed into the hallway, with a downstairs WC and spacious kitchen. There is a large lounge/diner - perfect for relaxing or entertaining guests. The house also boasts a conservatory (which leads out to the private garden). Upstairs, you will find a well-appointed bathroom and three well proportioned bedrooms providing ample room for rest and relaxation. Each room is filled with natural light, creating a warm and inviting atmosphere throughout the home.

One of the standout features of this property is the private garden, offering a tranquil outdoor space for gardening, play, or simply enjoying the fresh air. Additionally, off-street parking is available to the front

Location is key, and this property is less than a mile from Greenford station, making commuting to central London and beyond a breeze. With local amenities, schools, and parks nearby, this home is perfectly situated for modern living.
