Location

Wilton is a small, rural village set east of Thornton Le Dale, 4 miles from the market town of Pickering and situated on the southern edge of the North York Moors National Park. In nearby Thornton Le Dale there is a primary school. Lady Lumley's secondary school is in Pickering. Both neighbouring areas have good local shopping facilities and Pickering has a weekly market and supermarkets. Wilton is ideally placed for easy access between the coast, the North York Moors and the historical city of York which provides excellent rail links directly to London.

Planning Consent

We understand that there is planning permission in place to convert the double garage into extra living space. Further information available if required.
