Tucked away on Boltro Road, just moments from Haywards Heath mainline station, this quirky and unusually laid-out ground floor flat offers a fantastic opportunity for first-time buyers or investors seeking something with character.

Offering 469 sq ft of internal space, the property features a bright bay-fronted living area, a modernised shower room, and a double bedroom overlooking a surprisingly large and private decked patio garden — a rare bonus in such a central location.

The galley-style kitchen is located at the rear of the property, on a split-level step down from the hallway, adding to the home's unique charm. It includes built-in appliances and useful storage space currently utilised for a tumble dryer, making it both practical and well thought-out.

Additional features include gas central heating, double glazing, and an EPC rating of C, ensuring comfort and energy efficiency.

With a projected rental income of £900–£950 pcm and a potential gross yield of 5% to 6%, this property presents a practical option for those looking to invest, as well as anyone wanting a well-located, low-maintenance home close to the station.
