Having been significantly improved by the current owners, the property now offers well-appointed accommodation complemented by double glazing and electric heating.

The layout includes an entrance hallway, a pleasant lounge/diner featuring a wood burner, and a smart fitted kitchen. There are three bedrooms and a beautifully finished shower room.

Outside, the mature gardens wrap around the property, the two driveways offer ample parking and there is the added advantage of a generous garage and workshop with a utility area to the rear, ideal for hobbies or additional storage.

Mullion itself is the largest village on The Lizard Peninsula which is home to mainland Britain's most southerly point. It is officially designated as an area of outstanding natural beauty, from sheltered valleys to moorland with superb countryside and framed by its rugged coastline.

Mullion is a thriving coastal village offering an excellent range of facilities including a Co-operative supermarket, local shops, and both primary and comprehensive schools with nursery provision. The village enjoys a strong sense of community, supported by a range of clubs and societies including football and cricket clubs.

There are Anglican, Methodist and Catholic churches, a health centre and pharmacy, and two popular hotels — the Polurrian Hotel with its leisure club and indoor swimming pool, and the recently refurbished Mullion Cove Hotel, which now boasts luxury spa facilities.

Mullion also benefits from its own picturesque harbour and the beautiful beach at Polurrian Cove, the golden sands of Poldhu Beach and an excellent 18-hole links golf course add to the areas appeal.

For a wider selection of shops and amenities, the market town of Helston lies approximately six miles away, offering supermarkets and a range of national stores.
