Situated in the heart of the Cornish market town of Helston is this two bedroom, attached property having immense charm and character. The Grade II listed residence, which has an attractive local stone facade, is said to be a former school house and has been greatly enhanced by the current vendors. Benefiting from mains gas central heating, a real highlight is the good size rear garden with an abundance of shrubs and plants and a pleasant patio area.

A tastefully thought out renovation providing modern living, whilst retaining the historic character. This property, we are advised, has undergone a comprehensive renovation, the exterior boasts a recently installed roof, complemented by a blend of sleek double glazed aluminium and refurbished sash windows. Inside, on the ground floor, the home flows over lime stone flooring and on the first floor, recently fitted carpets and fresh plastering, provides a stylish finish. The separate studio has been thought out with the creative individual in mind and features traditional lime plaster and a dedicated electrical infrastructure - including an independent fuse box and earth - which we are advised is perfectly suited for a kiln. The information previously stated as being provided to us by the vendors.

In brief, the accommodation comprises a kitchen/diner and completing the ground floor a lounge. On the first floor is a shower room and two bedrooms. Accessed via the garden is a good size outbuilding with vaulted beam ceiling which would seem ideal as a home office or an art studio (subject to any required consents).

Helston is the gateway to The Lizard Peninsula with its stunning features, coves and cliff top walks. The town itself is a bustling market town providing facilities that include national stores, health centres, a cinema and leisure centre with indoor pool.
