Opportunities like this are incredibly rare — a home that doesn't just offer space, but genuine freedom to live the way you choose.

This wonderfully flexible property is currently arranged as a two double bedroom home with an interconnecting self-contained one-bedroom annexe. Perfect for multi-generational living, welcoming extended family, creating an independent space for older children, or generating additional income, it adapts effortlessly to changing needs. Previously configured as a four-bedroom family home, it could easily be returned to a single, spacious residence if desired.

Inside, the atmosphere is both bright and comforting. Many of the rooms are dual aspect, providing for lovely natural light, while multiple log burners including in both sitting rooms and the kitchen create a warm, homely feel — perfect for cosy winter evenings after long countryside walks.

Outside is where the lifestyle truly unfolds. Enclosed gardens wrap around the front, side and rear, providing safe and private spaces for children and pets to roam, summer barbecues with friends, or simply quiet moments in the sunshine. A useful workshop with additional store offers exciting potential for hobbies, home business use or creative projects.

The grounds extend further still, with ample parking, a discreetly positioned self-contained static caravan — currently long let by the vendors — and an impressive 3.5-acre field enjoying fabulous townscape and rural views.

Whether you're dreaming of smallholding life, space for family to stay, an income stream, or simply room to breathe, this is a property that offers not just a home — but a lifestyle.
