Situated within the luxury new development of Porth Gwel in this sought after Cornish fishing village of Coverack is this brand new, five bedroom detached executive style residence. This impressive reverse level home is designed to take full advantage of the views over the village and out to sea, boasting many refinements of modern living from air source heating and under floor heating, to a stylish fitted kitchen with an array of built-in appliances and two bedrooms with en-suite bathrooms. Built by a highly regarded local developer, 3 Porth Gwel is the final property remaining on this bespoke development.

To the outside there is a large garden to the front which is mainly laid to lawn and has a good sized patio area. To the rear of the residence is parking for a number of vehicles and a double garage.

In brief, the accommodation on the ground floor comprises a hall, five bedrooms, two of which boast en-suite facilities, and a master also having a walk-in dressing room. On the first floor is a fabulous open plan lounge kitchen/diner, utility room, w.c. and a snug.

Coverack itself is a quintessential Cornish fishing village being situated on the Lizard Peninsula, which has been designated as an area of outstanding natural beauty. The cove itself has a lovely sandy beach which is a popular centre for water sports that include windsurfing, stand-up paddle boarding, sailing and diving. There is an attractive harbour from which a small fleet of traditional fishing boats operate and land their daily catch. There is a public house, restaurants, a shop selling local produce and a primary school. St Keverne village is a short drive away and has a number of shops, including a butcher's and doctors' surgery whilst comprehensive schooling can be found in the nearby village of Mullion. The bustling market town of Helston, which has more extensive amenities including national stores and supermarkets, is some eight miles distant.
