An opportunity to purchase a detached, three bedroom character house with a one bedroom annexe and parking in the sought after Cornish fishing village of Porthleven.

Situated in the well regarded residential area of Unity Road is this detached family house. The residence, which benefits from double glazing, boasts many character features from an attractive local stone facade to beamed ceilings and a wood burner in the lounge.

A real highlight of the property is the one bedroom, self-contained annexe which would seem ideal for a dependant relative or family member. It may also be possible to use this area to generate an additional income stream subject to any necessary planning and consents. With parking being at a premium at times in the village, purchasers will delight in the driveway with car port to the side of the property.

In brief, the accommodation comprises a hall, lounge, dining room, kitchen, inner hall, shower room and, completing the ground floor, a rear porch. On the first floor is a bathroom and three bedrooms, the master of which boasting an en suite shower room.

Accessed via the rear courtyard is a self-contained annexe comprising a small kitchen area, shower room, lounge/office and on the first floor, a bedroom.

To the outside is a walled enclosed garden to the front, driveway to the side with car port and a good sized courtyard to the rear of the property. The rear garden also has a further pleasant raised area with stone chippings for ease of maintenance and a useful shed.

Porthleven is a vibrant, picturesque fishing village and mainland Britain's most southerly port. The village is renowned for its many highly regarded restaurants, long beach, surfing, rugged coastline and clifftop walks. Community groups are thriving within the village with sports' clubs and a prize-winning brass band which can be heard echoing around the harbour on many a summer's Sunday evening.
