PROPERTY SUMMARY

An attractively refurbished four-bedroom bungalow on Western Road, offering modern, comfortable living in a highly convenient Sutton location. The property has been upgraded throughout, with new plastering, flooring and insulation, creating a warm, efficient and contemporary home.

The accommodation includes a well-proportioned reception room ideal for relaxing or entertaining, a modern kitchen with stylish units and generous storage, and the added practicality of a utility room/cloakroom — a valuable feature for everyday convenience. The newly updated bathroom provides a fresh, modern finish.

The home is perfectly positioned within walking distance of West Sutton and Sutton Mainline stations, making it an excellent choice for commuters. It also sits within the catchment area for outstanding local schools, further enhancing its appeal for families.

A rare advantage so close to the town centre is the off-street parking for two vehicles, offering both ease and security. Residents will also enjoy superb access to local shops, restaurants, transport links and amenities.

This Western Road property presents a superb opportunity for families or professionals seeking a newly refurbished home with modern comforts, a practical layout and excellent connectivity in a sought-after Sutton setting.
