EXTERNALLY:

This attractive detached home enjoys a delightful position within a popular residential cul-de-sac, conveniently situated for access to the town centre and onto the A1/ A46 corridors.

To the front, a dropped kerb provides vehicular access onto a part-tarmac, part-gravelled driveway, offering side-by-side off-road parking for two vehicles. The well-maintained front garden is predominantly laid to lawn, complemented by a selection of established shrubs and a small tree, with potential to create additional off-road parking for a further vehicle, if required.

A small paved pathway leads to the front entrance door, whilst the partially gravelled side aspect incorporates a further paved pathway leading to a timber pedestrian gate, providing access to the beautifully maintained and particularly private rear garden. Predominantly laid to lawn, complemented by a variety of established plants, shrubs and bushes, together with raised vegetable beds and an extensive paved patio area, ideal for outdoor dining and entertaining. A pathway extends towards the rear boundary, where space is provided for a garden shed.

Further benefits include an outside water tap, a double external power socket and fully fenced side/rear boundaries. A mature, tree-lined outlook beyond the rear boundary provides an attractive backdrop and enhances the garden's excellent degree of privacy throughout the year. Remaining well-maintained by the local council once a year.
