EXTERNALLY:

This attractive and individual detached home enjoys a lovely, quiet position, in a hugely popular semi-rural village setting. Greeted with a multi-vehicle concrete driveway, leading down to a detached single garage, with external wall light. The well-maintained front garden has been tastefully landscaped and partially laid to lawn, with beautiful planted borders and a paved pathway up to the composite front entrance door, with sloped tiled roof storm canopy and external wall light. There is a high-level confider hedged front and right side boundary. Helping to enhance privacy even further!

The left side aspect has a block paved pathway, down to a wooden personal gate, opening through to a BEAUTIFULLY LANDSCAPED REAR GARDEN. Predominantly laid to lawn, with complementary planted borders, a double external power socket, a generous Indian sandstone paved seating area, hot and cold water taps, external security lighting and access to the air source heat pump. Provision for a log store.

The bottom of the garden hosts a further block paved seating space, with outside power point. There are high-level walled left side and part rear boundaries. A mature hedged right side boundary and partial fenced rear boundary.
