This well presented and characterful Victorian Terrace house is situated on a popular residential road approximately 1.25 miles to the west of Reading Town Centre and conveniently within a short walk of a wealth of amenities to include Reading West train station (Reading, Paddington, Basingstoke, Newbury) a frequent 24 hour bus service, Battle Library, various gyms, several green spaces to include Prospect Park, plus a range of shops, supermarkets, cafes, pubs and restaurants.

Well maintained throughout with a desirable and charming blend of period features complemented by modern updates, this welcoming home's entrance hall has stairs rising to the first floor between the two separate, versatile reception rooms. These comprise of a front aspect living room and a rear aspect dining room with access to the under stairs storage cupboard. Wood effect tiled flooring throughout the kitchen diner and entrance hall provides great continuity and practicality. The dining room opens to the modern fitted kitchen with side aspect window and door to the rear garden. A small lobby area behind the kitchen leads to the ground floor bathroom with rear aspect window, heated towel rail, and a white three piece suite which includes shower over bath with screen.

On the first floor, three good sized bedrooms are arranged in the familiar and versatile '2+1' configuration with bedroom 3 being accessed via bedroom 1. Bedroom 3 is currently used as a snug and dressing room and also offers opportunity to be converted into an en-suite bathroom if so desired. Other general notable points include UPVC double glazing throughout, gas fired central heating via the well looked after combination boiler and fibre internet available.

Outside, this desirable home is completed further by the south east facing rear garden enjoying a level patio and lawned space with access to a brick built store at the end of the garden.

Please contact Sansome & George Estate Agents to discuss this fantastic example in more detail or to arrange a viewing appointment at your earliest convenience.
