- Sizable Established Rear Garden
- No 'Onward Chain' Complications
- Great Opportunity To Improve, Re-model & Extend (STPP)
- Kitchen Plus Rear Lean To
- 3 Separate Bedrooms
- Ample Frontage Providing Off Road Parking

This charming and characterful end of terrace cottage presents an exciting opportunity for a new owner to improve, reconfigure and/or extend (subject to necessary consents). Offered with the added advantage of no 'onward chain' complications, the property is tucked away in a rural lane in the village of Aldermaston, just off the A4 Bath Road and hence giving easy access to the M4 motorway, Reading, Thatcham and Newbury. Set on the banks of The River Kennet, the village is surrounded by countryside, woodland and scattered with lakes plus features a local park with playground, primary school, local shop, pub and tea room, as well as Aldermaston train station all being within circa 1 mile.

The frontage of the property is mainly grass and provides ample off road parking. The front door opens to an entrance porch which in turn leads to a front aspect living room with open fireplace, stairs rising to the first floor and a sliding door to the dining room. The rear aspect dining room has a door to a lean to across the rear of the property, and also a door to the rear aspect kitchen. From the kitchen, a door leads to a lobby with doors to a rear aspect shower room and separate WC. On the first floor, a landing services 3 separate bedrooms.

The rear garden is another notable feature of this interesting property. The established and sizable rear garden includes mature trees, established shrubs and plants with gravel areas and a path leading to an Avery/shed and greenhouse. There are various outbuildings of timber construction and a secure gate giving access to the front. An outside Utility has previously housed a washing machine.

Requiring obvious expenditure and improvement, this charming home set in leafy surroundings gives great opportunity to create a truly wonderful home. Please contact Sansome & George Estate Agents for further information or to arrange a viewing appointment.
