Offered to the market with the advantage of no 'onward chain' is this popular and attractive 'bay fronted' Victorian mid terrace house. The property is ideally situated within yards level walk of amenities which include regular bus services, green spaces and parks, schools to include Battle Primary (Ofsted rating outstanding), supermarkets, shops, cafes, pubs and restaurants, as well as Reading West train station (Paddington, Reading mainline, Theale, Basingstoke, Newbury) and also conveniently under 1.25 miles from Reading town centre.

The property offers entrance hall with stairs rising to first floor, two separate reception rooms comprising living room with front aspect bay window, and rear aspect dining room, a spacious kitchen, and ground floor four piece bathroom both of which will be receiving brand new flooring. On the first floor, the landing gives access to 3 bedrooms which are arranged in the familiar and versatile 2+1 configuration with bedroom 3 being accessed via bedroom 1 giving easy use as a dressing room, home office or potential en-suite. There is also potential to extend into a spacious loft area (subject to necessary consents). The exterior consists of an easterly aspect rear garden, mainly paved to patio with small pond and garden outbuilding with power. Complemented by gas fired central heating to radiators, mainly double glazed windows, and on street permit parking is also applicable, this charming home boasts great potential.
