Set within this well-regarded residential cul-de-sac, the property immediately impresses with its welcoming frontage and practical layout. Internally, the ground floor flows particularly well, with a spacious dual-aspect living and dining room forming the heart of the home. This is a genuinely usable family space, enhanced by a feature fireplace and ample room for both relaxing and entertaining.

To the rear, the property has been extended to create a superb kitchen arrangement leading seamlessly into a light-filled garden room. The kitchen itself is well appointed with a comprehensive range of units and work surfaces, while the adjoining dining/family area benefits from extensive glazing, drawing in natural light and providing direct views and access onto the garden. It is this space that gives the house its edge, offering a far more sociable and practical layout than many comparable homes.

Upstairs, the first floor provides three well-proportioned bedrooms. The principal bedroom is particularly notable, featuring an extensive range of fitted cabinetry that maximises storage without compromising on space. The remaining bedrooms are ideal for children, guests or home working, all served by a family bathroom.

Externally, the rear garden has been designed with family life in mind. A paved terrace leads onto a lawned area, creating distinct zones for entertaining and play. To the rear sits a substantial outbuilding, currently utilised as a home office and storage space, presenting clear potential for a variety of uses depending on a buyer's needs.
