Offers In The Region Of £375,000

Situated within the sought-after Steed Close in Herne Bay, this impressive four-bedroom semi-detached bungalow occupies a generous corner plot and offers exceptionally versatile accommodation, ample outside space and a beautifully established garden.

The property can be approached via two roads and has a driveway for two cars providing off-street parking for two vehicles, with further potential for additional parking if required. Its corner position gives the home an attractive setting, while the carefully maintained gardens have clearly been a labour of love for the current owner. Mature planting, well-defined sections and inviting areas to sit and enjoy the surroundings create a private and peaceful outdoor space that can be appreciated throughout the year.

Inside, the accommodation feels open, welcoming and well suited to modern family life. The spacious living room provides a comfortable central space for relaxing and entertaining, with a feature log burner creating a warm focal point during the cooler months. From here, the accommodation flows naturally into the bright garden room. Large windows and French doors overlook and open onto the garden, allowing natural light to flood the room and creating a seamless connection between indoor and outdoor living.

The separate kitchen is well positioned to enjoy views across the garden, offering a practical yet pleasant space for everyday cooking. Its separation from the main reception areas is ideal for those who prefer a defined kitchen, while still maintaining the home's bright and connected feel.

There are four well-proportioned double bedrooms, providing excellent flexibility for a growing family, visiting guests, working from home or creating a hobby room. The bungalow layout offers the convenience of largely single-storey living, while the generous footprint ensures that the accommodation does not compromise on space.
