

Chapel Road, Ramsgate, CT11 0BS
Offers In The Region Of £250,000

A Characterful Three-Storey Period Cottage with Hardwood Floors, Hidden Depths, and a Garden Full of Potential

Wedged between two slightly more self-satisfied neighbours, a tidy, unassuming period terrace with just enough presence to make you smile every time you walk home. With its London stock brick façade, neatly arched doorway, and freshly upright picket fence, it's got all the charm of a Victorian cottage (which it may very well be).

Step inside through the satisfyingly solid black front door and you're greeted by a home that quietly gets better the further in you go. Set over three floors - yes, three - it offers far more than first appearances suggest.

Down below, the basement level hosts a surprisingly generous kitchen and dining space, with proper storage and a fully-fledged bathroom - no cupboard showers here. The ground floor delivers a warm, character-filled lounge and a second bedroom, both with solid hardwood floors and built-in wardrobes. And up top? The main bedroom, spanning the full width of the house, with yet more storage and rooftop daydream potential.

Out front, a smartly enclosed mini garden sets the tone, while out back lies a long, promising stretch of garden that's crying out for some attention. It could be a wildlife haven, a veg patch, or simply somewhere to host barbecues and enjoy the British summer.

Chapel Road sits in a quiet pocket of Ramsgate's St. Lawrence area, just under half a mile from the train station with high-speed links to London. You're within walking distance of Ellington Park, the seafront, and Ramsgate's historic Royal Harbour - home to cafes, boats, and a few very respectable fish and chip options. Schools, shops, and the town centre are all nearby, and if you're ever in need of distraction, the beach is close enough to make impulsive walks entirely justifiable.
