, Glasgow, G52 2PN

Offers over £250,000

Set within a generous garden plot, this spacious semi-detached villa offers an ideal opportunity for a wide range of buyers, from growing families to those looking to downsize, yet still requiring a generous amount of living space.

While the property would benefit from internal upgrade, the flexible layout provides excellent potential to create a home tailored to personal style and needs.

Formed over two levels the accommodation comprises, on the ground floor, a side entrance hallway, bright front facing formal lounge featuring a gas fireplace at its focal point, fitted dining kitchen, two double bedrooms and shower room.

On the upper level are two further bedrooms and more attic space offering additional potential to develop.

Externally, the property enjoys a substantial and fully enclosed landscaped gardens to front and rear, offering both level lawn and patio areas. A lengthy side driveway provides off-street parking for several vehicles and leads to a single detached garage.

Located in a peaceful residential pocket, this home benefits from excellent local amenities just a short distance away including supermarkets, cafes, banks, and pharmacies. For commuters, regular bus services run nearby and the railway station is within comfortable walking distance, offering easy access to the M8 motorway network providing excellent connectivity. Local primary and secondary schooling options are also readily available.
