About This Property

A fantastic two double bedroom flat with a south facing roof terrace situated within a period conversion. The property features a private entrance, large, bright and spacious reception, fully fitted kitchen/diner, modern family bathroom and second WC. The property further benefits from large windows and high ceilings throughout, providing a spacious feel with excellent natural light.

The property is ideally located near to West Hampstead's excellent transport links including the Underground (Jubilee line, Zone 2), Thameslink and Overground stations and is in close proximity to the great array of shops, restaurants and amenities along Mill Lane and West End Lane.
