About This Property

This charming four-bedroom Georgian terraced house located in the private, quiet and characteristic surroundings of Flask Walk, in the very heart of Hampstead village, just a moments walk from the underground station and five minutes from Hampstead Heath, has been recently renovated throughout.

Set over three floors, this elegant property features a double reception leading onto a kitchen/diner with a luminous built-in conservatory, and a private patio garden which also provides secondary access to the spacious private garage.
The house further comprises a master bedroom with a large en-suite and a built-in 'walk -in' closet, two additional spacious double bedrooms, a further single bedroom, family bathroom including a bathtub, a separate shower/toilet room, and a utility room.
The eat-in kitchen is well equipped with bespoke AAA appliances and has an abundance of natural light. A separate wooden-floored dining area provides a perfect space for family and entertaining guests near the fireplace..
