LOCATION

Set in the sought-after town of Norton, just across the river from Malton, the property enjoys an enviable position with excellent local amenities close at hand. Norton offers a vibrant community with independent shops, cafes, pubs, and well-regarded schools, while Malton, Yorkshire's food capital, brings award-winning eateries, markets, and a lively cultural scene.

For commuters, the train station provides direct links to York and beyond, while the A64 gives easy access to the coast and the city. Surrounded by the rolling Howardian Hills and the North York Moors, countryside walks and scenic landscapes are never far away, making this an ideal location for both convenience and escape.
