The Forge, The Forge, West Lutton, North Yorkshire, YO17 8TA Guide price £850,000

This period-property dating back to 1855 comprises of a four-bedroom detached house 'The Forge', a large office/studio space, additional laundry room/utility and separate four-bedroom cottage 'The Old Forge' which has been recently used as a holiday cottage. Set back from the road, next to the village church and surrounded by open fields this property is a perfect place to retreat to and makes a fantastic family home, with a large garden, limestone patio, driveway and spacious garage with electric.

The Forge is exquisitely finished, with pine doors, oak flooring, wooden-sash windows and double-glazing throughout. In brief, the property comprises a hallway, sitting room and living room both with open fires, a spacious open-plan kitchen/dining room with log burning stove, cloakroom, wc and a beautiful conservatory with exposed brick overlooking the patio and garden. To the first floor are four well-proportioned double bedrooms, bedroom one is ensuite, with a walk-in wardrobe, and a spacious house bathroom comprises a walk-in shower and free-standing roll-top bath.

The studio/office space provides a unique work-from home location or could be used as additional holiday home or gym/yoga studio. Situated on the first floor, it has plenty of natural light, with stunning original exposed roof beams, engineered oak flooring and electric heating. The utility/laundry room boasts ample storage, a linen cupboard and plumbing for a washer and dryer.

The Old Forge is a single-storey four bedroom cottage retaining many original features which has been imaginatively renovated. The cottage has natural stone floors, beamed ceilings and a cosy wood burning stove set in a stunning brick fireplace modelled on one of the three original curved chimneys. The cottage has underfloor heating throughout, with thermostatic controls in each room to allow individual room temperature control.
