Situation and Description

Parsonage Fields is an attractive cul-de-sac of modern properties that lie on the southern side of the thriving and very popular village of Wellington. Within walking distance is a village store, church, excellent primary school, sports club and much more. Further facilities are then available at the market town of Leominster to the north and the cathedral city of Hereford to the south; both offer main line train stations and road links to other parts of the country.

The accommodation has been well planned and designed for modern living. The ground floor offers plenty of living space with a large lounge and spacious study as well as a well-designed and appointed kitchen/family room which has direct access to the gardens. On the first floor there is a large master suite with dressing room, as well as a guest suite and two further good-sized bedrooms. The house also benefits from gas fired central heating, double glazing and all fitted carpets.

On arrival a front door leads into a welcoming reception hall with large double storage cupboard with hanging rail and oak doors leading to a good-sized sitting room with a walk-in bay window to the front, windows to the side, fireplace with fitted wood burner and double doors leading onto the patio. A separate study provides a quieter space to work and has an attractive bay window to the front. The main hall then leads through to a large kitchen/ breakfast room which is a wonderful area for the family to gather. It offers plenty of light and space, and includes a tiled floor, an excellent fitted kitchen that includes granite working surfaces, a variety of fitted cupboards, built-in fridge and freezer, built in dishwasher, a Rangemaster Toledo gas and electric cooker with extractor over and double doors that lead out to the gardens. The ground floor space is then supported by a utility and separate cloakroom.

From the reception hall a fully carpeted staircase leads up to the first-floor landing with airing cupboard and access to the roof space with pull down ladder and partly boarded loft.

There are then four excellent bedrooms including a master suite with en-suite shower room and dressing area with a range of fitted wardrobes. A guest suite at the front of the house again has an en suite shower room and fitted wardrobes and there are then two further bedrooms which are supported by a well-appointed family bathroom. Two of the bedrooms also have far reaching views over farmland at the rear.

Outside

The property occupies a corner plot and is situated at the end of a quiet cul-de-sac. A driveway provides ample parking and leads to a large, detached garage with automatic up and over door, power and lighting and measures (18' x 17').

The gardens then lie to the front and rear and are laid to lawn with a number of herbaceous borders. A pathway leads around one side of the house to the rear gardens which are well enclosed by mature hedging and close boarded fencing, with a patio adjoining the house ideal for summer barbecues.
