- First floor living room with sliding door to south-facing roof garden providing secluded seating area
- Convenient location close to excellent local amenities
- Driveway providing parking space
- The property benefits from concrete floors to the ground floor, triple glazing, MVHR system and new smart electric heaters.

A unique, architect designed, energy efficient, one bedroom detached home set within walking distance to the town centre. This exceptional property offers thoughtfully designed accommodation that makes clever use of every available space, finished in a contemporary Scandinavian style. The ground floor features a bespoke kitchen and dining area with a striking feature window, while the staircase leads to a beautifully presented open-plan living room with a vaulted ceiling, creating a bright and spacious feel. Glazed sliding doors open onto a south-facing roof garden/terrace, providing an ideal space for outdoor entertaining and relaxation. The generous double bedroom benefits from excellent storage, an en-suite shower room and a separate WC. Designed around Passivhaus principles, the property has an exceptionally low heating demand, estimated at approximately one third that of a typical UK new-build home, making it highly energy efficient, comfortable and cost-effective to run.

The property occupies an excellent location, backing onto the attractive Kingsland Valley and within easy walking distance of Coleham and Shrewsbury town centre. Coleham offers a fantastic selection of independent shops, cafés, restaurants and everyday amenities, while the town centre provides a wider range of shopping, leisure and cultural facilities. The River Severn and surrounding riverside walks are also close by, providing excellent opportunities for enjoying the outdoors, with Shrewsbury railway station conveniently located for wider travel connections.
