Offers In The Region Of £265,000

Available with No Upward Chain

Childs Ercall sits in the Shropshire countryside, between the towns of Newport and Market Drayton. The village itself is mentioned in the Domesday Book in 1086, and there still remain many historic properties within the village, including Childs Ercall Hall. At the centre of the village is the village green, with the sandstone church of St Michael and All Angels lying to the West. The 'Jubilee Village Hall' is widely used by various groups and classes, adjoining which is a large playing field with a football pitch and a separate children's play area. The village also has its own licenced 'Childs Ercall Club', with bar and function room and adjacent bowling green, which also hosts a number of social societies and activities and is open to all during some evenings in the week. The village lies about 7 miles from Newport, with its highly regarded schools and its diverse range of leisure and shopping facilities, and approximately 6½ miles from Market Drayton, again with good primary and secondary schools, shopping and leisure facilities. The larger towns of Telford, Shrewsbury and Stafford have even more amenities, and also provide rail and motorway links.
