Denise White Agents Comments

This truly stunning five bedroom detached home has been designed with day-to-day family living in mind. With five bedrooms across two floors, ample storage space, and bright and airy accommodation, the property is a prime example of how modern homes are better suited to the current standard of living.

As you enter the property, you are welcomed in by a stylish and spacious entrance hall which leads you through to the stunning open-plan kitchen diner. Boasting a modern fitted kitchen with quartz worktops above, built in breakfast bar, and French doors onto the paved patio area, this exceptional room seamlessly combines indoors and outdoors and lends itself perfectly to entertaining friends and family. A large living room situated at the front of the property is flooded with natural light from the bay window featuring bespoke shutters creating a more cosy space to unwind. A useful WC completes the downstairs accommodation.

Ascending to the first floor, you will find the main bedroom - a large double room with bay window, bespoke shutters and built in wardrobe solutions, and ensuite bathroom. Three further bedrooms provide ample accommodation for family and guests with bedrooms three and four providing a pleasant outlook to the rear across the valley. A stylish and well equipped bathroom services the three bedrooms. To the second floor is a galleried landing area perfect for added seating and a place to relax. The fifth bedroom benefits from its own floor and is perfect for older, more independent children or as a guest bedroom as it also features a large bathroom.

Externally, a paved driveway provides off-road parking for multiple vehicles, bordered by pleasant lawned areas. At the rear of the property, is a south west facing garden backing on to fields of green. The initial patio area accessed from the French doors from the dining area is the ideal spot for families to spend time together or enjoy the sunshine and alfresco dining. Beyond is a large lawned area with immense potential to be further landscaped and developed.

In summary, this immaculate detached home has been further enhanced by the current owner to provide ample storage solutions, stylish decor and bespoke fixtures and fittings throughout. The luxurious property perfectly exemplifies the benefits of modern homes.

Location

Cheddleton is situated on the outskirts of Leek, within easy reach of the market town, yet also close to some stunning countryside.

Leek is known as the 'Queen of the Staffordshire Moorlands', Leek is a former textile town with a long and fascinating history.

The unspoilt town centre offers a refreshing alternative to from modern shopping malls and has a wealth of independent shops, including former silk mills housing antique and reproduction pine centres, as well as traditional and contemporary furnishings.

Delicious local produce can be found in abundance at traditional butchers, bakers, greengrocers, delicatessens and cafes. Leek is also home to speciality producers of condiments, confectionery, preserves, wine, whisky, craft beers and the traditional Staffordshire oatcake.

Traditional markets abound, both indoors in the beautifully restored Victorian Butter Market and outdoors in the Market Place, offering everything from general goods, antiques and collectables to fine foods and special 'Totally Locally' Sunday markets. And when it comes to wining and dining, you can choose from a tempting selection of cafés, real ale pubs and restaurants.

Further afield, you'll find the unique, tooth-like rock formations of The Roaches, Rudyard Lake with its picturesque setting and narrow gauge railway and Tittesworth Water, a popular and accessible attraction for visitors of all ages

The location offers excellent access to the Peak District National Park, an area of outstanding natural beauty famed for its walking, cycling and wildlife watching. Steep limestone valleys like Dovedale, with its stepping stones, and Lathkill Dale, draw visitors from around the world.

The nearest train stations to Leek are Stoke-on-Trent (12 miles), Macclesfield (13 miles) and Buxton (13 miles), providing direct services to Manchester, Sheffield and London in around 95 minutes.
