Denise White Agent Comments

Situated in a convenient residential location on Grove Street, this well-presented two-bedroom terraced property offers comfortable living space and a practical layout, ideal for first-time buyers, downsizers, or buy-to-let investors.

Upon entering the property, you are welcomed by a small entrance porch which leads directly into a cosy and inviting lounge, providing a warm and comfortable space to relax. To the rear of the property is a generously sized, fully fitted kitchen offering ample worktop and storage space, making it ideal for everyday cooking and dining.

Leading on from the kitchen is a useful utility room with plumbing for a washing machine and access to the rear of the property. The ground floor accommodation is completed by a bathroom located just off the utility area.

To the first floor, the property offers two well-proportioned bedrooms, both of which are comfortable double rooms, providing excellent space for sleeping or additional furnishings.

Externally, the property benefits from a small enclosed courtyard area immediately to the rear, along with a useful outhouse which could serve as additional storage or be adapted as a compact home gym. Beyond this is a second separate enclosed courtyard area, ideal for outdoor seating and entertaining.

This charming home combines practical indoor space with private outdoor areas, making it a fantastic opportunity in a popular Leek location.

Location

Leek is known as the 'Queen of the Staffordshire Moorlands', Leek is a former textile town with a long and fascinating history.

The unspoilt town centre offers a refreshing alternative to from modern shopping malls and has a wealth of independent shops, including former silk mills housing antique and reproduction pine centres, as well as traditional and contemporary furnishings.

Delicious local produce can be found in abundance at traditional butchers, bakers, greengrocers, delicatessens and cafes. Leek is also home to speciality producers of condiments, confectionery, preserves, wine, whisky, craft beers and the traditional Staffordshire oatcake.

Traditional markets abound, both indoors in the beautifully restored Victorian Butter Market and outdoors in the Market Place, offering everything from general goods, antiques and collectables to fine foods and special 'Totally Locally' Sunday markets. And when it comes to wining and dining, you can choose from a tempting selection of cafés, real ale pubs and restaurants.

Further afield, you'll find the unique, tooth-like rock formations of The Roaches, Rudyard Lake with its picturesque setting and narrow gauge railway and Tittesworth Water, a popular and accessible attraction for visitors of all ages

The location offers excellent access to the Peak District National Park, an area of outstanding natural beauty famed for its walking, cycling and wildlife watching. Steep limestone valleys like Dovedale, with its stepping stones, and Lathkill Dale, draw visitors from around the world.

The nearest train stations to Leek are Stoke-on-Trent (12 miles), Macclesfield (13 miles) and Buxton (13 miles), providing direct services to Manchester, Sheffield and London in around 95 minutes.
