Denise White Agent Comments

Situated on the popular Saltire Court in Leek, this well-presented three-bedroom townhouse offers spacious and modern accommodation throughout, making it an ideal purchase for first-time buyers, families, or investors alike.

Upon entering the property, you are welcomed into a spacious entrance hall, which benefits from a convenient downstairs WC. From here, the home opens into a superb open-plan kitchen diner and lounge, creating a fantastic social and family living space. The fully fitted kitchen overlooks the front aspect and offers a modern, stylish feel with ample workspace and storage. There is generous room for dining, with the space seamlessly flowing into the well-proportioned lounge area to the rear. The lounge itself is an excellent size and enjoys double doors opening out onto the rear garden, allowing plenty of natural light into the room.

To the first floor, the property offers three well-proportioned bedrooms. The principal bedroom overlooks the rear aspect and benefits from its own en-suite shower room. Bedroom two is a generous double bedroom, while bedroom three is a well-sized single room, ideal as a child's bedroom, nursery, dressing room, or home office. Completing the accommodation is the family bathroom.

Externally, the property boasts an impressive low-maintenance rear garden, predominantly laid to decking, providing a fantastic space for entertaining and outdoor seating. The property also benefits from two allocated parking spaces located within a private communal car park to the rear.

Location

Leek is known as the 'Queen of the Staffordshire Moorlands', Leek is a former textile town with a long and fascinating history.

The unspoilt town centre offers a refreshing alternative to from modern shopping malls and has a wealth of independent shops, including former silk mills housing antique and reproduction pine centres, as well as traditional and contemporary furnishings.

Delicious local produce can be found in abundance at traditional butchers, bakers, greengrocers, delicatessens and cafes. Leek is also home to speciality producers of condiments, confectionery, preserves, wine, whisky, craft beers and the traditional Staffordshire oatcake.

Traditional markets abound, both indoors in the beautifully restored Victorian Butter Market and outdoors in the Market Place, offering everything from general goods, antiques and collectables to fine foods and special 'Totally Locally' Sunday markets. And when it comes to wining and dining, you can choose from a tempting selection of cafés, real ale pubs and restaurants.

Further afield, you'll find the unique, tooth-like rock formations of The Roaches, Rudyard Lake with its picturesque setting and narrow gauge railway and Tittesworth Water, a popular and accessible attraction for visitors of all ages

The location offers excellent access to the Peak District National Park, an area of outstanding natural beauty famed for its walking, cycling and wildlife watching. Steep limestone valleys like Dovedale, with its stepping stones, and Lathkill Dale, draw visitors from around the world.

The nearest train stations to Leek are Stoke-on-Trent (12 miles), Macclesfield (13 miles) and Buxton

(13 miles), providing direct services to Manchester, Sheffield and London in around 95 minutes.
