Denise White Estate Agents Comments

A charming two-bedroom end-terrace cottage, brimming with potential and nestled in the delightful semi-rural village of Dilhorne. Requiring modernisation throughout, this characterful home occupies a generous plot and offers versatile accommodation, off-road parking, and a peaceful setting—ideal for buyers seeking a project in a sought-after location.

To the ground floor, the property features a cosy living room with dual-aspect windows and a traditional coal fire, creating a warm and inviting space. The light-filled kitchen sits to the rear, accompanied by a useful porch area, utility space, and a downstairs shower room. A conservatory opens out onto the rear garden, offering excellent potential; with thoughtful reconfiguration, this area could be transformed into a highly practical and attractive living space.

Upstairs, there are two bedrooms—a well-proportioned double and a comfortable single—along with a compact bathroom.

One of the key highlights of this property is its excellent plot size, which could lend itself to future extension (subject to the necessary planning permissions). The spacious lawned garden includes a paved patio accessed from the conservatory, mature shrubs, and a pathway leading through to High Street. The home also benefits from off-road parking, adding to its convenience.

This is a wonderful opportunity to craft a bespoke home in a tranquil, semi-rural village setting—perfect for those looking to put their own stamp on a property.

Location

Dilhorne is a picturesque village located in the Staffordshire Moorlands, offering a quintessential rural lifestyle within easy reach of nearby towns and cities. The village is centred around its historic church of St. Faith, reflecting its long-standing heritage, and is complemented by community amenities including a village hall, a popular local pub (The Royal Oak), and a children's recreation area. The surrounding landscape is characterised by rolling fields and open countryside, providing excellent opportunities for walking, cycling, and enjoying the natural beauty of the Staffordshire Moorlands.

Despite its peaceful rural setting, Dilhorne is well-connected, with the nearby market towns of Cheadle and Leek offering additional shopping, dining, and leisure facilities. The village also benefits from excellent road links, including access to the A50, A500, and M6, making it convenient for commuting to larger centres such as Stoke-on-Trent. Dilhorne appeals to those seeking a friendly, community-focused village life, combined with the tranquility and scenic beauty of the Staffordshire countryside.

Anti-Money Laundering & ID Checks

Once an offer is accepted on a property marketed by Denise White Estate Agents we are required to complete ID verification checks on all buyers and to apply ongoing monitoring until the transaction ends. Whilst this is the responsibility of Denise White Estate Agents we may use the services of Guild365, to verify Clients' identity. This is not a credit check and therefore will have no effect on your credit history. You agree for us to complete these checks, and the cost of these checks is £30.00 inc. VAT per buyer. This is paid in advance, when an offer is agreed and prior to a sales memorandum being issued. This charge is non-refundable.
