Denise White Estate Agents Comments

Tan House has been nestled on the edge of the charming village of Rushton Spencer since the 1950s, offering substantial and versatile accommodation arranged over three floors, together with a self-contained studio apartment that is ideal for multi-generational living or those seeking the potential to generate additional income through holiday letting or Airbnb.

To the ground floor, an inviting entrance hall welcomes you into the home, with stairs rising to the first floor and doors leading to the principal living spaces. The lounge is a delightful bay-fronted reception room positioned to the front elevation, featuring a multi-fuel stove set upon a stone hearth with a wooden mantle, creating a warm and cosy focal point. Adjacent to the lounge is a charming sitting room, complete with exposed wooden flooring and dual aspect windows that allow natural light to flood the space.

Positioned to the rear of the property, the kitchen, which has recently been updated, is fitted with a contemporary range of units and integrated appliances, opening seamlessly into a spacious living dining area that provides an excellent space for modern family life and entertaining, with direct access onto the garden. Off the kitchen is a useful pantry cupboard and a separate utility room, which in turn leads to a ground floor shower room.

To the first floor, the impressive principal suite spans one side of the property and enjoys dual aspect windows that frame beautiful views over the surrounding countryside. The room also benefits from a range of built-in wardrobes and an en-suite bathroom. Bedroom two is positioned to the front aspect and also enjoys dual aspect windows, creating a bright and airy feel, while bedroom three is located to the rear and overlooks the gardens and open countryside beyond. Stairs rise from the landing to the second floor, where two further bedrooms provide excellent additional accommodation.

Externally, Tan House occupies a generous plot with a driveway providing off-road parking for up to six vehicles and leading to a detached double garage, above which sits a versatile annexe studio. The private and enclosed gardens are beautifully maintained, featuring well-kept lawns ideal for children to enjoy, alongside steps rising to an elevated decked seating area that offers ample space for outdoor dining and relaxation while taking in the peaceful surroundings.

The self-contained annexe studio further enhances the versatility of the property, offering excellent potential for multi-generational living, guest accommodation or income generation through holiday letting. The space comprises a spacious living area, functional kitchenette and separate shower room. Subject to obtaining the relevant permissions, the garage and studio spaces could be combined and converted in to a single separate dwelling.

Situated along a quiet country lane just moments from the village centre, Tan House enjoys an enviable position within easy reach of the market towns of Leek and Macclesfield, while also benefitting from direct access to some of the Staffordshire Moorlands' most beautiful countryside. Combining space, flexibility and an idyllic setting, this is a truly exceptional home suited to a variety of lifestyles.

Location

Nestled on the edge of the Staffordshire Moorlands and bordering the breathtaking Peak District National Park, Rushton Spencer is a charming semi-rural village that offers an enviable blend of countryside living and everyday convenience. Surrounded by rolling hills and picturesque landscapes, the area is ideal for those who enjoy outdoor pursuits, with scenic walking routes, cycling trails and nearby attractions such as Rudyard Lake, The Roaches and the wider Peak District all within easy reach.

At the heart of the village is a welcoming community atmosphere, supported by a selection of local amenities including the well-regarded Rushton Spencer Primary School, making the area particularly appealing to families. The village also benefits from popular local public houses including The Knott Inn and The Royal Oak, both of which provide traditional hospitality and serve as valued hubs for residents and visitors alike.

For a wider range of amenities, shopping and leisure facilities, the nearby market towns of Leek, Congleton and Macclesfield are all easily accessible, offering supermarkets, independent retailers, restaurants and secondary schooling options. Rushton Spencer is also well placed for commuters, with convenient road links to Stoke-on-Trent, Manchester and Derby, while nearby rail services from Congleton and Macclesfield provide connections to London and beyond. Combining rural charm, community spirit and excellent access to surrounding towns and countryside, Rushton Spencer offers an exceptional lifestyle for those seeking a peaceful yet well-connected village setting.
