"Old houses are full of memories, but a renovation makes room for new stories"

A spacious end terrace property just a short walk from Leek town centre, offering superb potential for renovation. This extended home features an integral garage—unusual for this style and location—alongside a dining room, lounge, kitchen, and cellar. There are three generous double bedrooms, a family bathroom, and a converted loft room with potential to become a fourth bedroom. Outside, a private rear yard includes two brick-built stores. A rare opportunity to modernise and personalise a generously sized home in a prime location.

Denise White Estate Agents Comments

Positioned just a short stroll from the heart of Leek town centre, this characterful end terrace property offers a rare opportunity to create a spacious family home in a highly convenient location. In need of modernisation throughout, the property provides generously proportioned accommodation and the added bonus of an integral garage—a unique and highly sought-after feature for a home of this type and position.

To the ground floor, an entrance porch provides access to both the garage and the main living areas. The dining room is located to the front aspect, while to the rear there is a comfortable lounge which leads through to the kitchen, creating a flexible layout that could be reimagined to suit modern living. From the lounge, stairs descend to a useful cellar, ideal for storage, and up to the first floor.

The first floor offers three well-proportioned double bedrooms and a family bathroom. From the third bedroom, stairs rise to a converted loft space—a fantastic additional area that could be adapted into a fourth bedroom, subject to the necessary alterations.

Outside, the rear of the property enjoys a private yard with two brick-built outbuildings, perfect for additional storage or utility use.

Brimming with potential and offering space rarely found in similar town centre properties, this is a fantastic opportunity for buyers looking to create a bespoke home in a well-established and popular location.

Location

Known as the 'Queen of the Staffordshire Moorlands', Leek is a former textile town with a long and fascinating history.

The unspoilt town centre offers a refreshing alternative to from modern shopping malls and has a wealth of independent shops, including former silk mills housing antique and reproduction pine centres, as well as traditional and contemporary furnishings.

Delicious local produce can be found in abundance at traditional butchers, bakers, greengrocers, delicatessens and cafes. Leek is also home to speciality producers of condiments, confectionery, preserves, wine, whisky, craft beers and the traditional Staffordshire oatcake.

traditional markets abound, both indoors in the beautifully restored Victorian Butter Market and outdoors in the Market Place, offering everything from general goods, antiques and collectables to fine foods and special 'Totally Locally' Sunday markets. And when it comes to wining and dining, you can choose from a tempting selection of cafés, real ale pubs and restaurants.

Further afield, you'll find the unique, tooth-like rock formations of The Roaches, Rudyard Lake with its picturesque setting, and narrow gauge railway and Tittesworth Water, a popular and accessible attraction for visitors of all ages.
