Denise White Estate Agent Comments

An excellent opportunity to purchase a well presented Bungalow, set at the top of Birchall lane, in a prominent position on a highly sought after residential Cul-de-Sac. Boasting ample off-road parking on a private driveway, coupled with three double bedrooms, the main of which has an en-suite bathroom. The position of this property means that you will have unparalleled views across the hills, towards Cheddleton, from your back garden and tall trees that add a serene sense of privacy and a continental feel to the garden.

Entering through a large porch into the entrance hallway, which features Oak wooden flooring, you will find a handy WC, storage cupboard and access to all rooms. The lounge is an expansive room, spanning the length of the house with patio doors to the rear giving access to rear garden. A modern kitchen provides plenty of space for all kitchen appliances and has been designed with soft close cupboard doors with practicality in mind.

Also benefiting from three double bedrooms, the main one of which has an added dressing room and en-suite shower room, created by converting half of the original garage. Versatility is a key feature of this lovely home, with the bedrooms being interchangeable into sitting rooms, office spaces and play rooms. All in all, the perfect family home no matter the stage in life.

Location

Situated on the outskirts of the market town of Leek in Birchall, close to Birchall Golf Club.

Leek is known as the 'Queen of the Staffordshire Moorlands', Leek is a former textile town with a long and fascinating history.

The unspoilt town centre offers a refreshing alternative to from modern shopping malls and has a wealth of independent shops, including former silk mills housing antique and reproduction pine centres, as well as traditional and contemporary furnishings.

Delicious local produce can be found in abundance at traditional butchers, bakers, greengrocers, delicatessens and cafes. Leek is also home to speciality producers of condiments, confectionery, preserves, wine, whisky, craft beers and the traditional Staffordshire oatcake.

Traditional markets abound, both indoors in the beautifully restored Victorian Butter Market and outdoors in the Market Place, offering everything from general goods, antiques and collectables to fine foods and special 'Totally Locally' Sunday markets. And when it comes to wining and dining, you can choose from a tempting selection of cafés, real ale pubs and restaurants.

Further afield, you'll find the unique, tooth-like rock formations of The Roaches, Rudyard Lake with its picturesque setting and narrow gauge railway and Tittesworth Water, a popular and accessible attraction for visitors of all ages
