Denise White Estate Agents Comments

Nestled in an idyllic setting in the hamlet of Cauldon Low and surrounded by wonderful panoramic views of rolling Staffordshire countryside, this charming three-bedroom cottage offers a rare and exciting opportunity for those seeking a peaceful rural lifestyle. Brimming with potential, the property provides generous accommodation now ready for modernisation, allowing purchasers to create a beautiful home tailored to their own style and requirements.

The ground floor accommodation includes an entrance porch and hallway, a sitting room and separate lounge—offering flexible living and entertaining spaces—and a well-proportioned kitchen with access to a rear porch. Upstairs, the first floor features three double bedrooms, each enjoying stunning rural outlooks, along with a bathroom and separate WC.

Externally, the property stands proudly within sizeable gardens to both the front and rear, thoughtfully laid out with paved patios and pathways, lawns, and an array of established, mature planting. These outdoor spaces offer wonderful potential for landscaping, gardening, or simple enjoyment of the peaceful surroundings and far-reaching views. To the side of the cottages there is also a separate private driveway and detached timber garage.

Ideally located, the cottage sits within easy reach of the market towns of Leek, Cheadle and Ashbourne, as well as a wealth of local attractions including the Churnet Valley Railway, Dimmingsdale, the Manifold Valley and Alton Towers—perfect for families, walkers and those who love the outdoors.

A fantastic opportunity to create a dream countryside home in one of Staffordshire Moorlands' most picturesque settings.
