Denise White Agent Comments

Situated on the popular Frith Street in Leek, this well-presented two-bedroom mid-terrace property offers deceptively spacious accommodation, making it an ideal first-time purchase or investment opportunity.

Upon entering the property, you are welcomed into a cosy lounge featuring a log burning stove, creating a warm and inviting focal point. The lounge leads through to a generous kitchen diner, providing ample space for both cooking and dining. To the rear of the property, a useful utility area offers additional storage and practicality, leading on to the family bathroom.

To the first floor, the property benefits from two well-proportioned bedrooms, with the principal bedroom enjoying views over the front aspect and the second bedroom overlooking the rear courtyard.

Externally, the property boasts an enclosed rear courtyard with a designated seating area, providing the perfect space for outdoor dining, entertaining guests, or simply relaxing during the warmer months.

Presented to a good standard throughout, this charming home combines character features with practical living space and is conveniently located close to Leek town centre, local amenities, ample on street parking and transport links.

Location

Known as the 'Queen of the Staffordshire Moorlands', Leek is a former textile town with a long and fascinating history.

The unspoilt town centre offers a refreshing alternative to from modern shopping malls and has a wealth of independent shops, including former silk mills housing antique and reproduction pine centres, as well as traditional and contemporary furnishings.

Delicious local produce can be found in abundance at traditional butchers, bakers, greengrocers, delicatessens and cafes. Leek is also home to speciality producers of condiments, confectionery, preserves, wine, whisky, craft beers and the traditional Staffordshire oatcake.

Traditional markets abound, both indoors in the beautifully restored Victorian Butter Market and outdoors in the Market Place, offering everything from general goods, antiques and collectables to fine foods and special 'Totally Locally' Sunday markets. And when it comes to wining and dining, you can choose from a tempting selection of cafés, real ale pubs and restaurants.

Further afield, you'll find the unique, tooth-like rock formations of The Roaches, Rudyard Lake with its picturesque setting and narrow gauge railway and Tittesworth Water, a popular and accessible attraction for visitors of all ages.
