Denise White Estate Agents Comments

Set in the heart of the countryside, this superb detached home offers the rare combination of period character and high-quality modern living. Set within generous, beautifully maintained grounds, the property immediately impresses with its traditional brickwork and timber double-glazed windows, perfectly suited to its rural surroundings.

The property has been thoughtfully extended and fully restored by the current owners to an excellent standard throughout. A welcoming entrance hall leads into a stunning Shaker-style kitchen with central island, quartz worktops and integrated appliances, opening through to the dining area with bespoke storage and a built-in desk, ideal for modern family life or home working.

A standout feature of the home is the bespoke oak orangery, which enjoys wonderful open views across the gardens and surrounding countryside. With underfloor heating and full-height glazing, it provides a bright and comfortable living space all year round. The separate living room offers a cosy retreat with a log-burning stove and large bay window. A secondary lobby provides practical access to the courtyard and garden, ideal for everyday country living, while a utility room with WC completes the ground floor.

To the first floor are four well-presented bedrooms, three of which are spacious doubles with built-in wardrobes and far-reaching countryside views. The principal bedroom benefits from a contemporary en-suite shower room and original stone fireplace. The fourth bedroom is a cosy single, ideal as a child's room, nursery or home office. A generous family bathroom completes the accommodation.

Outside, the property occupies a sizeable private plot, approached via a large gravel courtyard providing ample off-road parking and access to a detached stone-built double-storey garage. The surrounding gardens are a real highlight, featuring a large stone flagged patio, a gated organic vegetable garden with raised beds, greenhouse and pond, along with a separate lawned garden enclosed by mature hedgerows, creating a peaceful and private setting which enjoys far reaching views over the surrounding Staffordshire Moorland Countryside.

Location

Bradnop is on the outskirts of the thriving market town of Leek which offers a refreshing alternative to modern shopping malls and has a wealth of independent shops, including former silk mills housing antique and reproduction pine centres, as well as traditional and contemporary furnishings.

Delicious local produce can be found in abundance at traditional butchers, bakers, greengrocers, delicatessens and cafes. Leek is also home to speciality producers of condiments, confectionery, preserves, wine, whisky, craft beers and the traditional Staffordshire oatcake.

Traditional markets abound, both indoors in the beautifully restored Victorian Butter Market and outdoors in the Market Place, offering everything from general goods, antiques and collectables to fine foods and special 'Totally Locally' Sunday markets. And when it comes to wining and dining, you can choose from a tempting selection of cafés, real ale pubs and restaurants.

Further afield, you'll find the unique, tooth-like rock formations of The Roaches, Rudyard Lake with its picturesque setting and narrow gauge railway and Tittesworth Water, a popular and accessible attraction for visitors of all ages.

The location offers excellent access to the Peak District National Park, an area of outstanding natural beauty famed for its walking, cycling and wildlife watching. Steep limestone valleys like Dovedale, with its stepping stones, and Lathkill Dale, draw visitors from around the world.

Educationally, the area is well-served by a range of highly regarded schools. These include Leek First School, Westwood First School, and Westwood College. Notable independent options such as St Anselm's in Bakewell (Tatler Prep School of the Year 2021), Abbotsholme School, and Denstone College are within reasonable travelling distance.
