"The reality is that old houses were built by actual craftsmen, the little nuances in the woodwork made the house more inviting and more alive." - Joanna Gaines

A truly charming Grade II listed detached home dating back to circa 1660, offering beautifully presented interiors rich in period features, including exposed beams and inglenook fireplaces. Set on a generous corner plot with mature gardens and a self-contained annex, this remarkable property perfectly blends historic character with versatile modern living. Ideal for families, multi-generational households, or those seeking a distinctive country home with timeless appeal.

Denise White Estate Agents Comments

Steeped in history and full of character, this beautifully presented Grade II listed detached home dates back to around 1660 and occupies a sizeable corner plot in a delightful village setting. Offering versatile and generous accommodation along with a self-contained annex, this exceptional property combines period charm with modern practicality, making it ideal for multi-generational living or those seeking flexible space.

Internally, the home boasts two spacious and cosy lounges, each featuring inglenook-style fireplaces and exposed beams, creating warm and inviting living areas perfect for family life or entertaining. The kitchen is well appointed with granite worktops, a range-style cooker, and a breakfast bar, while a snug provides an ideal space for a home office or playroom and leads to a useful utility room.

A spacious dining room with built-in storage offers additional flexibility and could easily serve as a fourth bedroom, especially for those requiring single-storey accommodation, being conveniently served by a well-appointed shower room.

To the first floor, a large galleried landing leads to three well-proportioned bedrooms, including a superb principal bedroom with triple-aspect windows enjoying views across the surrounding countryside. The family bathroom is generously sized, light, and neutrally decorated, featuring both a bath and separate shower.

The detached annex offers further versatility with open-plan living, a comfortable double bedroom, and a modern shower room – ideal for guests or independent relatives.

Externally, the property occupies a substantial corner plot with a large gated driveway providing ample off-road parking, and two expansive lawned gardens surrounded by mature hedgerows, creating a private and peaceful setting.

Overall, this remarkable Grade II listed home offers cosy yet spacious interiors, historic charm, and unmatched versatility – a truly special property perfectly suited to those seeking a characterful family home with flexible living options in a picturesque village location.

Location

Nestled in the heart of Staffordshire, Church Leigh is a picturesque village that effortlessly blends rural tranquillity with accessible everyday conveniences. Situated around 6 miles west of Uttoxeter and approximately 14 miles north-east of Stafford, the village enjoys a countryside setting yet remains well-connected via nearby major roads.

The village is part of the civil parish of Leigh, and carries a rich heritage. A key landmark is the historic church of All Saints' Church.

Surrounded by gently rolling countryside, the area offers excellent opportunities for outdoor living and leisure—from country walks through fields and hedgerows to scenic rural drives. The village features amenities such as a village hall, a well-supported primary school, and a traditional pub adding to its charm.

Church Leigh offers a rare combination of historic village charm, rural peace, and everyday practicality—making it a superb choice for families, downsizers, or anyone seeking a tranquil base with good access to town amenities and transport links.

Anti-Money Laundering & ID Checks

Once an offer is accepted on a property marketed by Denise White Estate Agents we are required to complete ID verification checks on all buyers and to apply ongoing monitoring until the transaction ends. Whilst this is the responsibility of Denise White Estate Agents we may use the services of Guild365, to verify Clients' identity. This is not a credit check and therefore will have no effect on your credit history. You agree for us to complete these checks, and the cost of these checks is £30.00 inc. VAT per buyer. This is paid in advance, when an offer is agreed and prior to a sales memorandum being issued. This charge is non-refundable.
