Denise White Estate Agents Comments

This well-presented three-bedroom semi-detached property on Argles Road offers spacious and versatile accommodation, ideal for families or those seeking comfortable modern living.

Upon entering the property, you are welcomed by a small entrance hallway which leads through to a generously sized lounge, complete with a fitted log burner—creating a warm and inviting focal point.

Beyond the lounge, an inner hall provides access to a ground floor bathroom and a useful utility area. From the utility space, there is also access to a separate shower room, adding further practicality to the home.

To the rear of the property, you will find a particularly spacious kitchen diner, offering ample room for both cooking and entertaining. Double doors open directly onto the outside space, allowing for a seamless indoor-outdoor flow.

To the first floor, the landing leads to three well-proportioned double bedrooms. The main bedroom enjoys a pleasant rear aspect, completing the internal accommodation.

Externally, the property benefits from a driveway to the front providing off-road parking. To the rear, there is an enclosed courtyard featuring a patio area and a storage shed—an ideal space for relaxing or hosting small family gatherings.

Early viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate the space and versatility this home has to offer.

Location

Known as the 'Queen of the Staffordshire Moorlands', Leek is a former textile town with a long and fascinating history.

The unspoilt town centre offers a refreshing alternative from modern shopping malls and has a wealth of independent shops, including former silk mills housing antique and reproduction pine centres, as well as traditional and contemporary furnishings.

Delicious local produce can be found in abundance at traditional butchers, bakers, greengrocers, delicatessens and cafes. Leek is also home to speciality producers of condiments, confectionery, preserves, wine, whisky, craft beers and the traditional Staffordshire oatcake.

Traditional markets abound, both indoors in the beautifully restored Victorian Butter Market and outdoors in the Market Place, offering everything from general goods, antiques and collectables to fine foods and special 'Totally Locally' Sunday markets. And when it comes to wining and dining, you can choose from a tempting selection of cafés, real ale pubs and restaurants.

Further afield, you'll find the unique, tooth-like rock formations of The Roaches, Rudyard Lake with its picturesque setting and narrow gauge railway and Tittesworth Water, a popular and accessible attraction for visitors of all ages.
