Denise White Estate Agents Comments

Tucked away in a quiet cul-de-sac on the ever-popular Pickwood Estate, on the outskirts of the charming market town of Leek, this executive four-bedroom detached family residence offers beautifully extended accommodation, perfectly suited to modern family living. Thoughtfully enhanced to the ground floor, the property boasts spacious, open-plan and versatile interiors designed with both comfort and practicality in mind.

An inviting entrance hall welcomes you to the property, with stairs rising to the first floor and access to a useful downstairs WC, as well as the dining room and kitchen. To the front aspect, the dining room provides ample space for a family dining table and chairs, complemented by a contemporary log burning stove set upon a slate tiled hearth, creating a warm and cosy focal point. This space flows effortlessly into the breakfast kitchen, which is fitted with a range of quality units, granite work surfaces and a wooden breakfast bar –ideal for informal dining and entertaining.

The kitchen opens seamlessly into a generous lounge, a standout feature of the home, enhanced by a semi-vaulted ceiling with Velux windows that flood the space with natural light. French doors lead directly onto the rear garden, further enhancing the sense of space and indoor-outdoor living. A separate utility room sits just off the kitchen, providing additional practicality and access to both the rear garden and the integral garage.

To the first floor, the property continues to impress. The principal bedroom enjoys a pleasant rear aspect and benefits from a large built-in wardrobe, along with access to a Jack and Jill shower room. Bedroom two spans the full depth of the property and opens into a superb en-suite bathroom, featuring a walk-in shower with rainfall head and a luxurious double-ended bath. Bedroom three is positioned to the front and also benefits from a built-in wardrobe, while a fourth single bedroom offers flexibility as a child's room, nursery or home office.

Externally, the property enjoys a driveway providing off-road parking for two vehicles, alongside well-maintained and easily managed front and rear gardens. Perfectly positioned, the home sits just moments from Pickwood Recreation Ground and within easy walking distance of Leek town centre, with its excellent range of shops, schools, and amenities—perfect for families seeking space, style and a highly desirable location.

Location

Known as the 'Queen of the Staffordshire Moorlands', Leek is a former textile town with a long and fascinating history.

The unspoilt town centre offers a refreshing alternative to from modern shopping malls and has a wealth of independent shops, including former silk mills housing antique and reproduction pine centres, as well as traditional and contemporary furnishings.

Delicious local produce can be found in abundance at traditional butchers, bakers, greengrocers, delicatessens and cafes. Leek is also home to speciality producers of condiments, confectionery, preserves, wine, whisky, craft beers and the traditional Staffordshire oatcake.

Traditional markets abound, both indoors in the beautifully restored Victorian Butter Market and outdoors in the Market Place, offering everything from general goods, antiques and collectables to fine foods and special 'Totally Locally' Sunday markets. And when it comes to wining and dining, you can choose from a tempting selection of cafés, real ale pubs and restaurants.

Further afield, you'll find the unique, tooth-like rock formations of The Roaches, Rudyard Lake with its picturesque setting and narrow gauge railway and Tittesworth Water, a popular and accessible attraction for visitors of all ages.
