This is a rare opportunity to own a truly idyllic countryside home in one of the Peak District's most desirable villages.

Denise White Estate Agents Comments

Nestled in the heart of the picturesque village of Oncecote, within the breathtaking Peak District National Park, this beautifully presented two-bedroom detached stone cottage offers a rare opportunity to acquire a character-rich home in a truly idyllic setting.

Sympathetically renovated by the current owners, the cottage effortlessly combines rustic charm with modern comforts. A welcoming entrance porch offers a practical space for kicking off muddy boots after countryside adventures.

Inside, the home boasts three inviting reception rooms. A recently added lounge is a real highlight, featuring vaulted ceilings, original beams, a log burner, and direct access to the garden—perfect for enjoying cosy evenings year-round. The dining room creates a warm, intimate ambiance with bespoke shutters, a log burner, and charming period details throughout. A separate lounge also boasts direct access onto the stone patio and offers further versatile living accommodation. The country-style kitchen is fitted with wooden cabinetry and granite worktops.

Upstairs, the cottage continues to delight with two well-proportioned double bedrooms and a stylish bathroom, complete with a freestanding claw-foot roll-top bath and elegant fittings that reflect the home's heritage.

Externally, the property sits within beautifully tiered and landscaped gardens, with well-stocked flower beds and a stone patio accessible from both the lounge and living room. At the rear, there's a dedicated allotment area with raised beds—perfect for growing your own produce.

A cobbled driveway leads to a detached stone garage, adding both practicality and kerb appeal.

Whether you're seeking a peaceful full-time residence that feels like a holiday every day, a charming country retreat, or a high-quality holiday let, this delightful cottage ticks every box in a truly special village location.

Location

Oncecote is a small village that lies within The Peak District National Park with attractively properties built in local sandstone. There is a popular pub as well as a Georgian style church at the centre.

Oncecote is a 10 minute drive from the thriving market town of Leek which offers a refreshing alternative to from modern shopping malls and has a wealth of independent shops, including former silk mills housing antique and reproduction pine centres, as well as traditional and contemporary furnishings.

Delicious local produce can be found in abundance at traditional butchers, bakers, greengrocers, delicatessens and cafes. Leek is also home to speciality producers of condiments, confectionery, preserves, wine, whisky, craft beers and the traditional Staffordshire oatcake.

Traditional markets abound, both indoors in the beautifully restored Victorian Butter Market and outdoors in the Market Place, offering everything from general goods, antiques and collectables to fine foods and special 'Totally Locally' Sunday markets. And when it comes to wining and dining, you can choose from a tempting selection of cafés, real ale pubs and restaurants.

Further afield, you'll find the unique, tooth-like rock formations of The Roaches, Rudyard Lake with its picturesque setting and narrow gauge railway and Tittesworth Water, a popular and accessible attraction for visitors of all ages.

The location offers excellent access to the Peak District National Park, an area of outstanding natural beauty famed for its walking, cycling and wildlife watching. Steep limestone valleys like Dovedale, with its stepping stones, and Lathkill Dale, draw visitors from around the world.

Educationally, the area is well-served by a range of highly regarded schools. These include Leek First School, Westwood First School, and Westwood College. Notable independent options such as St Anselm's in Bakewell (Tatler Prep School of the Year 2021), Abbotsholme School, and Denstone College are within reasonable travelling distance.

The nearest train stations to Leek are Stoke-on-Trent (12 miles), Macclesfield (13 miles) and Buxton (13 miles), providing direct services to Manchester, Sheffield and London, the latter reached in around 95 minutes. Manchester International Airport is within 30 miles.

Local Estate Agent Wins Prestigious British Gold Award for Customer Service

Denise White Bespoke Estate Agents has been honored with the esteemed Gold Award 2024 from the British Property Awards for their exceptional customer service and extensive local marketing knowledge in Leek and its surrounding areas.

The British Property Awards, renowned for their inclusivity and comprehensive evaluation process, assess estate agents across the United Kingdom based on their customer service levels and understanding of the local market. Denise White Estate Agents demonstrated outstanding performance throughout the rigorous and independent judging period.

As part of the assessment, the British Property Awards mystery shopped 90% of estate agents nationwide, evaluating their telephone etiquette, responsiveness to emails, promptness in returning missed calls, and, crucially, their expertise in the local marketing area.

The Gold Award is a testament to the estate agents who consistently go above and beyond, delivering exceptional levels of customer service, focusing on their commitment and excellence within the local community.

Anti-Money Laundering & ID Checks

Once an offer is accepted on a property marketed by Denise White Estate Agents we are required to complete ID verification checks on all buyers and to apply ongoing monitoring until the transaction ends. Whilst this is the responsibility of Denise White Estate Agents we may use the services of Guild365, to verify Clients' identity. This is not a credit check and therefore will have no effect on your credit history. You agree for us to complete these checks, and the cost of these checks is £30.00 inc. VAT per buyer. This is paid in advance, when an offer is agreed and prior to a sales memorandum being issued. This charge is non-refundable.
