Denise White Agent Comments

Situated on Southbank Street in the heart of the market town of Leek, this charming two-bedroom mid-terrace home offers a wonderful blend of character and practical living space, making it an ideal first-time purchase or investment opportunity.

Upon entering the property, you are welcomed into a cosy and inviting lounge, featuring an exposed brick chimney which creates a warm and homely feel. To the rear, the spacious kitchen diner provides ample room for both cooking and dining, complemented by traditional quarry-tiled flooring which adds further charm to the home.

Beyond the kitchen is a useful utility area, offering additional storage and laundry space, along with the convenience of a downstairs WC.

To the first floor, the property offers two well-proportioned bedrooms together with a spacious family bathroom, finished in a tasteful, traditional style.

Externally, the property benefits from a low-maintenance rear courtyard area, ideal for outdoor seating in warmer months.

Conveniently located close to Leek town centre, local amenities, schools and transport links, this characterful home presents an excellent opportunity for buyers seeking a property ready to move into while still retaining plenty of original charm.

Location

Leek is known as the 'Queen of the Staffordshire Moorlands', Leek is a former textile town with a long and fascinating history.

The unspoilt town centre offers a refreshing alternative to from modern shopping malls and has a wealth of independent shops, including former silk mills housing antique and reproduction pine centres, as well as traditional and contemporary furnishings.

Delicious local produce can be found in abundance at traditional butchers, bakers, greengrocers, delicatessens and cafes. Leek is also home to speciality producers of condiments, confectionery, preserves, wine, whisky, craft beers and the traditional Staffordshire oatcake.

Traditional markets abound, both indoors in the beautifully restored Victorian Butter Market and outdoors in the Market Place, offering everything from general goods, antiques and collectables to fine foods and special 'Totally Locally' Sunday markets. And when it comes to wining and dining, you can choose from a tempting selection of cafés, real ale pubs and restaurants.

Further afield, you'll find the unique, tooth-like rock formations of The Roaches, Rudyard Lake with its picturesque setting and narrow gauge railway and Tittesworth Water, a popular and accessible attraction for visitors of all ages

The location offers excellent access to the Peak District National Park, an area of outstanding natural beauty famed for its walking, cycling and wildlife watching. Steep limestone valleys like Dovedale, with its stepping stones, and Lathkill Dale, draw visitors from around the world.

The nearest train stations to Leek are Stoke-on-Trent (12 miles), Macclesfield (13 miles) and Buxton (13 miles), providing direct services to Manchester, Sheffield and London in around 95 minutes.
