

A lovely double-fronted Edwardian semi-detached villa, offered to the market with no upward chain, set within wonderful enclosed and mature gardens. Having been cherished by the same family for over two generations, this impressive four-bedroom property is a rare opportunity to acquire a home full of period charm, character and enormous potential.

Ideally positioned on Lizard Lane in the heart of picturesque Whitburn Village, the property is within easy walking distance of local schools, boutique shops, cafés, bars and the Co-op, as well as the stunning coastline and award-winning Blue Flag beaches. Whitburn Nature Reserve is also close by, with the sought-after villages of Cleadon and the popular coastal suburb of Seaburn within easy reach.

While the property would benefit from some cosmetic enhancement, it offers generous, versatile accommodation and provides an exceptional canvas for a new owner to create a truly wonderful family home. Period features, spacious rooms and an abundance of natural charm combine to give the property a distinctive character that is increasingly difficult to find.

The accommodation briefly comprises an entrance hall, living room, sitting room, dining room, kitchen and cloakroom to the ground floor. To the first floor there is a landing, four bedrooms and a family bathroom.

Externally, the property continues to impress, with a front garden and a particularly generous enclosed rear garden, beautifully mature and established with an array of plants, trees, shrubs and lawn. The rear also benefits from an outhouse, double garage and driveway, providing excellent outdoor space, storage and parking.

A substantial Edwardian home in a highly desirable village setting, with mature gardens, period character and significant potential. Early viewing is highly recommended to appreciate the space, charm and possibilities this wonderful family home has to offer.
