

Nestled within a quiet and highly desirable cul-de-sac in Seaburn, Sunderland, this attractive four-bedroom semi-detached Dutch-style bungalow, built circa 1932, presents a rare opportunity for discerning buyers seeking to enjoy life in this fashionable coastal suburb. Ideally positioned just a short stroll from the picturesque seafront and local beaches, the property also enjoys lovely sea views from the first-floor rear elevation.

Offered for sale with no onward chain, the property is entered via a spacious and welcoming reception hall, serving a lounge and dining room to the front, breakfasting kitchen, and a third reception room which could be used as a fourth bedroom leading into a conservatory overlooking the attractive rear gardens, creating a wonderful space for both relaxing and entertaining.

The ground floor also benefits from a modern bathroom, offering excellent flexibility and convenience. To the first floor are three further bedrooms, including a spacious principal bedroom with windows to both the front and rear aspects, the latter enjoying lovely sea views, and also boasting en-suite washroom.

Externally, the property is equally impressive, with a block-paved driveway providing off-street parking for several vehicles and leading to a detached garage and workshop. The front and rear gardens have been attractively landscaped with established lawns, mature planting and well-stocked borders, creating delightful outdoor spaces to enjoy throughout the seasons.

Although the property would benefit from a degree of modernisation and updating, it offers enormous potential for purchasers wishing to create a superb family home in one of Seaburn's most sought-after residential settings. With gas central heating, uPVC double glazing and fitted carpets throughout, this stylish home represents an exciting opportunity and is sure to attract considerable interest.
