

Sitting on a lovely corner plot featuring west facing gardens to the rear and a small south facing garden to the side, this popular style three bedroom, bay window semi offers a comfortable living space perfect for families, and is within easy walking distance of good schools and a superb range of coastal amenities.

The internal accommodation comprises an entrance porch, reception hall, lounge, dining room, an extended kitchen, three first floor bedrooms and a bathroom, whilst the property also benefits from gas central heating, UPVC double glazing and a partially floored loft.

Externally there is an additional garden to the front with a drive and garage, together with additional space to the side of the dwelling if any prospective purchasers wished to extend the property at a later date (subject to the appropriate planning approval).

Walking distance from Seaburn Metro Station and Seaburn shopping centre, the property is well placed for major routes leading into the City Centre and through to the wider North East conurbation and is guaranteed to impress upon internal inspection.
